Notice to Visitors

- In order to protect the residents of private buildings and their properties, building management or security personnel may ask visitors to state the purpose of their visit and produce proof of their identity.
- According to the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data (PCPD), identity documents may include resident cards, staff cards and Hong Kong Identity Cards, etc.
- The choice of what constitutes an acceptable proof of identity rests with the building management. Details of these identity documents may also be recorded for crime prevention purposes.
- Any information recorded should be handled in accordance with the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance. Further details can be obtained from the PCPD website (<http://www.pcpd.org.hk>) or by calling their hotline at 2827 2827.
- Visitors are not obliged to provide this information, but failure to provide proof of identity may result in their being refused entry by the management or security personnel.
- Should you have any enquiries, please call the Crime Prevention Bureau hotline at 2721 2486 or email to crimepre@police.gov.hk.
